- (b) Trades pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with these Rules and SEBI Regulations.

When a person has traded in securities while in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Trading Window

1) The Compliance Officer shall notify a 'trading window' during which the Designated Persons may Trade in the Company's securities after securing pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in accordance with these Rules. The competent authority for pre-clearing the Trade of Compliance Officer shall be Board.

2) Designated Persons shall not Trade in the Company's securities when the trading window is closed.

3) The Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

4) The trading window shall generally be closed on the following occasions –

- Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
- Declaration of dividend (interim or final)
- Issue of securities by way of rights/ bonus/etc.
- Any major expansion plan or execution of new projects
- Amalgamation, merger, takeover, buy-back, etc
- Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking.

5) Additionally, the trading window shall be closed in particular for a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer. Designated Person or class of Designated Persons will receive a notification on such special blackout periods.

6) The trading window may be re-opened after closure, not earlier than 48 hours after the UPSI in question becomes generally available.

7) All other provisions shall be as per Schedule B of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015

Pre-clearance of Trading

- Designated Persons may Trade in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open, after obtaining approval of the Compliance Officer.
- The Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even though the trading window is open.
- Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking are true and accurate, approve Trading by a Designated Person, on the condition that the Trade so approved shall be executed within seven trading days following the date of approval.
- The Designated Person shall, within two days of the execution of the Trade, submit the details of such Trade to the Compliance Officer as per Annexure 3. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the said form.
- If the pre-cleared Trade is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Person must secure pre-clearance of the transaction again.
- Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.
- A Designated Person who Trades in securities of the Company without complying with the pre-clearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the pre-clearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.

Additional trading restrictions on Designated Persons

- 1) No Insiders shall enter into derivative transactions in respect of the securities of the Company.
- 2) All Designated Persons who Trade in the securities of the company shall not enter into a contra trade during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.

3) The above restriction on contra trade shall not apply in case of exercise / sale of ESOP shares provided the Designated Persons do not possess UPSI and the sale is executed when the trading window is open and after obtaining pre-clearance.

Trading Plan

1) A Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan that complies with the SEBI Regulations (a "Trading Plan") and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure. The trading plan may be executed only after the plan is approved by the Compliance officer and disclosed to the stock exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed.

2) Designated person shall not exercise any influence over the amount of securities to be traded, the price at which they are to be traded, or the date of the trade. Designated person may delegate discretionary authority to his/her broker, but in no event Designated person may consult with the broker regarding executing transactions, or otherwise disclose information to the broker concerning the Company that might influence the execution of transactions, under the Trading Plan after it commences.

3) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan. However, the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Designated Person is in possession of UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Trading Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information.

Penalty for Insider Trading

1) An Insider who acts in contravention of these Rules shall be liable to have his services or relationship with the Company, as the case may be, terminated.

2) Directors, Officers and employees of the Company who violate these rules shall be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback etc and ineligibility for future participation in the Company's stock option plans or termination.

3) The SEBI, Stock Exchange or any other appropriate regulatory authority may also be informed of the violation of these Rules so that appropriate action may be taken.
